

SUMMER READINGS: STATISTICS

INSTRUCTIONS FOR SUMMER READING STATISTICS:

All students must read “How to lie with Statistics”. Make short notes on each chapter and explain what the author is trying to say.

This should be typed. This is for grade. There will be a class project on this book later. Please DO NOT COPY PASTE from websites. You will receive a zero if you do.

How to Lie With Statistics by Darrell Huff (1993, Paperback, Reissue) (Paperback, 1993) Other Editions...

Author: Darrell Huff Illustrated by: Irving Geis

1. You will be asked to use the information from “How to lie with Statistics “in Statistics class throughout the year. Make your own notes. Students must show a copy of the book on the second day of school. Please order early. Excuses will not be accepted.

ALL SUMMER WORK IS DUE ON THE SECOND DAY OF SCHOOL. NO EXCUSES WILL BE ACCEPTED!!! HAVE A WONDERFUL SUMMER.